

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

Vladimir Baryshnikov holds a PhD in History. He is Professor and Dean of the Department of History of New and Contemporary Time (Saint Petersburg State University). He has more than 25 years' experience in the field of education. His areas of interest relate to the history of international relations in the twentieth century, the history of the Second World War, and history of the Scandinavian countries and Finland.

Phone: +79213101822; E-mail: vbaryshnikov@mail.ru

Natalia Bogoliubova is Associate Professor in the Department of International Humanitarian Communication at Saint Petersburg State University. She has been in the field of education for more than 20 years. Her main research interests include international cultural relations, and foreign cultural policy of Russia.

Phone: +79112380623; E-mail: nmbog1@rambler.ru

Stepan Borchuk is Professor in the World History Department at "Vasyl Stefanyk" Precarpathian National University. He is engaged in the research of prominent figures and personalities from Galicia, as well as the history of the student movement of the late 19th and early 20th centuries, and military history of the 20th century.

Phone: +380676058818; E-mail: borchuk_s@ukr.net

Radu Florian Bruja graduated from "Ștefan cel Mare" University of Suceava in 2001. He took his M.A. degree from "Al. I. Cuza" University of Iași and then was awarded his PhD degree in 2006. He has published several articles and books in Romania and abroad (Austria, France, Poland, Slovakia, Ukraine) on various aspects of political life during the '30 and '40s of the 20th century. He earned a research and documentation grant at several institutions from Ukraine (2005, 2006) and Slovakia (2014, 2016). He holds the position of Lecturer in the Department of Human and Social-Political Sciences at "Ștefan cel Mare" University of Suceava. His research interests involve the Romanian interwar radical political movement, totalitarian regime, the Polish-Romanian and Slovak-Romanian relations.

Phone: +40744503551; E-mail: radub@atlas.usv.ro

Iryna Dobrzhanska is Senior Lecturer at Chernivtsi Trade and Economics Institute of Kyiv National University of Trade and Economics. She received her PhD with a dissertation on Comparative Analysis of Process of Gender Policy Formation and Realization in Ukraine and in the Russian Federation. Her research interests focus on the famine issue (late 19th – beginning 20th centuries). She also works on the influence of historical conditions on gender roles in Post-Soviet society. The author published about 25 articles on these issues.

Phone: +380505375349; E-mail: dobrira85@gmail.com

Elena Eltc is Associate Professor in the Department of International Humanitarian Communication at Saint Petersburg State University. She has more than 10 years' experience in the field of education. Her projects concern the ethno-cultural and confessional relations, Russian-French cultural ties, and international cultural exchange in the 20th century.

Phone: +79811047022; E-mail: elenaelts@mail.ru

Vladimir Fokin is Professor and Dean of the Department of International Humanitarian Communication at Saint Petersburg State University. He has been in the field of education for more than 35 years. His main research interests include the international humanitarian relations.

Phone: +79214077917; E-mail: fokin.vladimir@mail.ru

Roxana Georgiana Holcă-Nistor is a doctoral student in History at “Ștefan cel Mare” University of Suceava, Faculty of History and Geography. She is developing a PhD thesis on Romania's relations with the Arab states in the Near-East, in the context of the Arab-Israeli crisis, 1967-1989. Her current project examines the main events in the history of Romania and the Arab states, in the 20th Century, as well as the specific matters related to Islamic world and international relations.

Phone: +40740473333; E-mail: roxananistor1@yahoo.com

Pavel Klevtsov is Associate Professor in the Department of International Humanitarian Communication at Saint Petersburg State University. With over 12 years' experience in the field of education, he is interested by philosophy of history, problems of metaphysics, intercultural communications.

Phone: +78123282000; E-mail: pavel-klevcov@yandex.ru

Ismail Köse took his MA degree at Karadeniz Technical University in Trabzon, in 2002, and was awarded his PhD in History at the same university, in

---

2013. He is currently employed at Karadeniz Technical University in Trabzon (Turkey). He is interested in discussion and research pertaining to Ottoman history and to specific issues of international relations.

Phone: + 904623773000, E-mail: ismailkose|@hotmail.com
|  |

Renata Moish-Shiman graduated from Ternopil National Economic University (Ukraine) in 2012. She is a PhD student at the “Ștefan cel Mare” University of Suceava, preparing her thesis about The Subcarpathian Rus’ (Transcarpathia) in international relations, from 1938 to 1945. Her research interests extend to a range of topics in history, ethnography, culture.

Phone: +380988122876; E-mail: rmoish@ukr.net

Julia Nikolaeva is Associate Professor in the Department of International Humanitarian Communication at Saint Petersburg State University. She has more than 15 years’ experience in the field of education. Her research focuses on international cultural exchange, external cultural policy and cultural diplomacy (theory and practice), external cultural policy and cultural diplomacy of France, sports diplomacy, state branding.

Phone: +79219173893; E-mail: mollycat@mail.ru

Svitlana Pavlovskaya completed a PhD in Military History. She is currently a leading researcher of the Research Laboratory of the Humanitarian Institute (“Ivan Chernyakhovsky” National Defence University of Ukraine). Her area of interest relate to propaganda and agitation-mass work of the ideological structures of the Red Army, the possibilities of using the information product to change the world outlook and human behaviour, and the use of mass media in modern military conflicts to achieve a military-political goal with minimal losses. She led the informational and communication structures in the law enforcement agencies for twenty-three years. At the same time, she gave lectures and conducted research on this topic. Has released more than 25 articles and participated in the development of research problems of informational and psychological support for the actions of troops.

Phone: + 380952829289; E-mail: super-varkusha@ukr.net

Olha Tarasenko graduated from “Taras Shevchenko” Kyiv State University in 1990, with a major in History of Ukraine, Historiography, and Special Branches of Historical Science. She earned her PhD in 1995, with a thesis on the formation and development of historical education and science at Kyiv University, in 1834–

1884. Since 1995 she joined the “Borys Grinchenko” Kyiv University, and currently is Associate Professor in the History of Ukraine Department at the Faculty of History and Philosophy. She is interested in history and historiography of historical education and science in the Ukrainian territories, in the 19th century. She has authored one monograph and more than 45 articles.

Phone: +380955706466; E-mail: o.tarasenko@kubg.edu.ua

Volodymyr Velykochyy is Doctor of Historical Sciences, Professor of the Department of Historiography and Source Studies, and the Dean of the Tourism Faculty at the “Vasyl’ Stefanyk” Precarpathian National University in Ivano-Frankivsk, Ukraine. For more than 22 years he works in the universities of Ukraine and Poland. His research fields are historiography, sources for study of the Ukrainian Revolution, 1914-1923, history, archaeology, ethnology of Pokutia region. He published more than 160 scientific works, including 24 monographs and educational books.

Phone: +380503734211; E-mail: w-w-s@ukr.net

Myroslav Voloshchuk is Doctor of Historical Sciences, Professor in the Department of the World History of the Faculty of History, Political Sciences, and International Relations at the “Vasyl’ Stefanyk” Precarpathian National University in Ivano-Frankivsk, Ukraine, and the Head of “Centrum Studiorum Mediaevalium”. His main research topics are related to the Ruthenian-Hungarian, Ruthenian-Polish, and Ruthenian-Czech mediaeval relationships of the 9th–14th centuries, the mediaeval migrations in Central-Eastern Europe, the history of Halych and Galicia, the historical terminology etc. He has authored one individual and two collective monographs and more than 80 articles published in nine European countries.

Phone: +380506651069; E-mail: myrkomyrko79@gmail.com