

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

Ardak Abdiraiymova is Associate Professor at the “Kazakh Academy of Transport and Communications named after M. Tynyshpaev” and Head of the History of Kazakhstan and Social-Humanitarian Department. She has been published more than 50 scientific and educational works. Her research interests include social, political, and gender history.

Phone: +77012229409; E-mail: ardasha_69@mail.ru

Meiramkul Bizhanova is a Ph.D. Student in the Department of Kazakhstan History at Al-Farabi Kazakh National University (Kazakhstan). She studies the medieval history of Kazakhstan, especially the problems of historical continuity between the Golden Horde and the Kazakh Khanate.

Phone: +77073555651; E-mail: b.meiramgul7@gmail.com

Anastasia Blagoveshchenskaya graduated from Kazan State University in 1999. She is Associate Professor of Foreign Languages at the Institute of International Relations, History and Oriental Studies, Kazan Federal University. She has experience in the field of education and science for over 19 years. She is the author of more than 20 research papers in the field of Humanities.

Phone: + 79173921585; E-mail: ablagov2008@mail.ru

Radu Cârciumaru holds a Ph.D. in History from “Valahia” University of Târgoviște where he is currently Associate Professor in the Department of History. His main research interests include the genesis of medieval Romanian states and the external politics of Romanian countries in the Middle Age. He is author and co-author of more than 40 scientific publications and 4 books.

Phone: +40721252990; E-mail: radu.carciumaru@gmail.com

Vasile M. Demciuc received his Ph.D. in History from the University of Bucharest in 1994. He is Assistant Professor in the Faculty of History and Geography at Stefan cel Mare University of Suceava. His monographs, studies, and articles pertaining to mediaeval history were published in Romania, Turkey, and Moldova. His research interests focus on the history of Byzantine arts, historical monuments and the history of the Orthodox Church.

Phone +0040742610337; E-mail: demciuc_vasile@yahoo.com

Oleksandr Dobrzhanskyi is Doctor of Historical Sciences, Professor and Dean of the Faculty of History, Political Science and International Relations at Yuriy Fedkovych Chernivtsi National University. His research interests include the history of national movements in Central and Eastern Europe in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries.

Phone: +380505383110; E-mail: dobrzhanskiy@i.ua

Tetiana Fedirchyk holds a Ph.D. in Pedagogical Sciences. She is currently Professor in the Department of Pedagogy and Methods of Elementary Education at Yuriy Fedkovych Chernivtsi National University. Her main research fields are the methodology culture of elementary school teachers, professional and methodical activity of elementary school teachers, the model of formation of methodology culture of would-be elementary school teachers.

Phone: +380509351468, E-mail: fedirchyktanya@gmail.com

Elena Frolova is Associate Professor in the Department of History of Tatarstan, Archaeology, and Ethnology at Kazan Federal University. She has experience in the field of education and science for over 20 years. Her research interests focus on the interethnic relations, ethnic minorities, and diasporas, migration processes in the modern world, identity, gender studies. She is the author of more than 50 research papers in the field of ethnology, social, and cultural anthropology.

Phone: + 79297272357; E-mail: elenaieup@mail.ru

Elena Guschina is Senior Lecturer in the Department of the History of Tatarstan, Archaeology, and Ethnology at Kazan Federal University. She is also the Director of the University Ethnographic Museum. She has experience in the field of education and science for over 12 years. Her scientific interests are cultural heritage, traditional culture, and art, history of science, gender studies, identity, interethnic relations. She is the author of more than 80 research papers in the field of ethnology, social, and cultural anthropology.

Phone: + 79178801328; E-mail: eggucshina@mail.ru

Bereket Karibaev holds a Ph.D. in Historical Sciences. He is Professor in the Department of Kazakhstan History at Al-Farabi Kazakh National University (Kazakhstan). He published more than 300 scientific articles and has authored and co-authored over 40 monographs. His research area includes the mediaeval history of Kazakhstan, the political and ethnic history of the Golden Horde and the Kazakh Khanate. He is also interested in the historical continuity of the mediaeval states and the formation of the Kazakh Khanate.

Phone: +77072492466; E-mail: bereket.bk64@gmail.com

Aknur Koshymova holds a Master degree in Historical Sciences. She is currently Senior Lecturer in the Department of Kazakhstan History, Al-Farabi Kazakh National University (Kazakhstan). She has published about 35 scientific articles and a monograph. Her research area covers the problems of the ethnogenesis of the Turkic peoples and the medieval history of Kazakhstan.

Phone: +77078702491; E-mail: akosh.kno@gmail.com

Zere Maidanali is Associate Professor at the Department of Kazakhstan History, Al-Farabi Kazakh National University, Kazakhstan. She authored more than 50 scientific articles, 5 textbooks, and a monograph entitled Historiography of statehood in the territory of Eurasia in XIII - middle XV centuries. She is interested in the development and transformation of the political and legal system of nomadic formations, social structure, and statehood in the territory of Eurasia.

Phone: +77012188791; E-mail: vipZM@rambler.ru

Marianna Marusynets is Doctor of Sciences and Professor at National Pedagogical Dragomanov University, Kyiv (Ukraine). Her field research involves the pedagogical work, the personality of a pedagogue, directions, and approaches of researches in pedagogy.

Phone: +380509600705; E-mail: marusynetsm@ukr.net

Dariusz Milewski, Dr. habil., is currently working at “Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński” University in Warsaw, Institute of Historical Sciences. His fields of interest include military history and relations of Poland with Cossacks, Ottomans and their tributary states: Crimean Khanate, Transylvania, Moldavia, and Wallachia.

Phone: +48225696819; E-mail: d.milewski@uksw.edu.pl

Iurii Mosenkis holds a Ph.D. in Philological Sciences. He is Professor in the Department of the Ukrainian language and applied linguistics at “Taras Shevchenko” National University of Kyiv (Ukraine). His main research interests include the Ukrainian language, Proto-Slavic language, Cucuteni-Trypillian culture, origin of human language, mythology. He is also the author of more than 200 publications, including five monographs.

Phone: +380674030228; E-mail: guasileus@gmail.com

Antoniyy Moysey is Doctor of Historical Sciences, Professor, and Head of the Department of Social Sciences and Ukrainian Studies at Bukovinian State Medical University. His research interests are the history of Ukrainian culture, history of Ukraine, traditional culture of the Ukrainian population, interplay in area of the traditional culture of the Ukrainian and east-Romanian population of Bukovina, processes of ethnocultural identity in border regions. He published over 210 studies, articles and monographs.

Phone: +380505300967; E-mail: antoniimoisei@bsmu.edu.ua

Nadezhda Nizhnik is Doctor of Law, Ph.D. in Historical Sciences, Professor, Head of the Department of Theory of State and Law at the St. Petersburg University of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Russia, Honoured Worker of Higher School of the Russian Federation.

Phone: + 79112196515; E-mail: n.nishnik@bk.ru

Yedil Noyanov is Associate Professor at the Department of Kazakhstan History, Al-Farabi Kazakh National University, Kazakhstan. He published about 60 scientific articles, 5 monographs, and 11 textbooks as a single author or as a co-author. The sphere of his scientific activity is related to the political and ethnic history of the tribes of Central Asia and the Modern history of Kazakhstan.

Phone: +87072602595; E-mail: Edyl.Noivanov@kaznu.kz

Mariia Oliinyk is Doctor of Sciences and Associate Professor at Yuriy Fedkovych Chernivtsi National University (Ukraine). She leads the Department of Pedagogy, Psychology and Preschool Education. Her scientific interests are related to the preschool education in Eastern Europe, training of preschool teachers, theoretical and methodological basis and stages of didactic training, and the pedagogical conceptions.

Phone: +380506910934, E-mail: m.oliinyk@chnu.edu.ua

Olesea Palamarja (Vrabie) is currently a Ph.D. student in History at the Faculty of History and Geography, Stefan cel Mare University of Suceava. She is developing her Ph.D. thesis on The Relationship between MSSR and RSR (1945-1990). Her scientific interests are focused on the history of the Moldavian Soviet Socialist Republic.

Phone: +40748257176, E-mail: olesea_palamarja@yahoo.com

Kulimkoz Santaeva is Associate Professor in the Department of History at “Zhetysu State University named after I. Zhansugurov”, Kazakhstan. She is a Candidate of Historical Sciences. She has more than 15 years' experience in the field of education and research. Her research interest focus on the History of Kazakhstan (the 1900s-2000s).

Phone: +77773879175; E-mail: samgat_aneka@mail.ru

Kadyrzhan Smagulov holds a Ph.D. in Political Science and works as an Associate Professor in the Department of Political Science at Al-Farabi Kazakh National University. He has more than 10 years' experience in the field of education and political analysis. His research projects explore the internal policy of Kazakhstan and the history of local communities.

Phone: +77078148898; E-mail: kadyrzhan@gmail.com

Oleksandr Strokal is Assistant Professor in the Department of Ukrainian Language and Applied Linguistics at “Taras Shevchenko” National University of Kyiv. His research interests are in the field of Ukrainian Language, new words creation mechanisms in modern Ukrainian language, individually author's style, poetics, history of the Ukrainian culture. He authored more than 30 publications, including one monograph.

Phone: +380730500630; E-mail: omstrokal@gmail.com

Alexandr Sych graduated from Chernivtsi State University in 1977. He obtained his Ph.D. (History) in 1984, with a thesis on the role of the Slavic emigration from Austro-Hungary in the settlement and development of the Canadian West (the end of 19th century – 1914). In 1994 he defended his doctoral thesis on immigration and its place in the social and economic development of Canada (1900-1939), earning a Ph.D. in Sciences (History). He is currently Professor at Yuriy Fedkovych Chernivtsi National University (Ukraine), where he also leads the Department of Modern and Contemporary History. His research interests include the history of migration processes and immigration in Canada and USA during the 19th-20th centuries, WWI legacy, revolutions in history, the fate of democracy and nationalism in the context of the 20th Century. He is a contributor to various international collections of articles and author and co-author of several monographs, tutorials, articles, and reviews.

Phone: +380502629212; E-mail: amenitinna@gmail.com

Tatyana Titova is Doctor of Historical Sciences, Professor, and Head of the Anthropology and Ethnology Department at Kazan Federal University. She has experience in the field of education and science for more than 32 years. Her research interests are ethnic minorities and diasporas, migration processes in the modern world, identity, gender studies. She is the author of more than 180 research papers in the field of ethnology, social, and cultural anthropology.

Phone: + 79172931270; E-mail: tatiana.titova@rambler.ru

Liudmyla Tymchuk is Doctor of Sciences and Professor at Yuriy Fedkovych Chernivtsi National University, the Department of Pedagogy and Social Work. Her scientific interests are the history of pedagogy, the history of andragogy (theory and practice of adult education), social pedagogy, and social work.

Phone: +380505414832, E-mail: l.tymchuk@chnu.edu.ua

Myroslav Voloshchuk is Doctor of Historical Sciences and Professor in the Department of the World History, Faculty of History, Political Sciences, and International Relations at “Vasyl’ Stefanyk” Precarpathian National University, Ivano-Frankivsk (Ukraine). He is also Head of the “Centrum Studiorum Mediaevalium”. His main research topics are related to the Ruthenian-Hungarian, Ruthenian-Polish, and Ruthenian-Czech mediaeval relationships of the 9th–14th centuries, the mediaeval migrations in Central-Eastern Europe, the history of Halych and Galicia, the historical terminology, etc. He has authored one individual and two collective monographs and more than 80 articles published in nine European countries.

Phone: +380506651069; E-mail: myrkomyrko79@gmail.com

Roza Zharkynbayeva is Professor in the Department of World History, Historiography and Source Studies at Al-Farabi Kazakh National University. She is Doctor of Historical Sciences. Her main areas of interest are the socio-political history of Central Asia, gender and social policy. She is the author of over 140 scientific and educational publications.

Phone: +77075250332; E-mail: r_seidali@mail.ru