

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

Lilia Beloglazova is a Candidate of Pedagogic Sciences, Associate Professor of the Faculty of Russian Language and General Education at the Peoples Friendship University of Russia (RUDN) in Moscow. She has 69 publications (including 14 educational materials) and 55 scientific works (of which 4 abroad, 3 in the CIS), used in the teaching practice.

Phone: +79167040151; E-mail: pikgass@yandex.ru

Leskaly Berdyguzhin is an Associate Professor in the Department of Kazakh and World History at Kh. Dosmukhamedov Atyrau State University. He also works in the Ministry of Education and Science of the Republic of Kazakhstan. His scientific interests include the history of Kazakhstan, the history of the Kazakh oil industry, and the period of soviet repressions in the Kazakh Republic.

Phone: +87122276327; E-mail: berdyguzhin@mail.ru

Yuri Bezzub is a Senior Lecturer in the Department of Historical and Civic Education In-Service Teacher Training Institute Borys Grinchenko in Kyiv University. He is interested in the evolution of the Ukrainian national movement, the formation of a modern Ukrainian nation, ethno-national relations in Ukraine in the 19th – early 20th centuries, as well as the history of Ukrainian statehood. He is engaged in prosopography research of B. Grinchenko, O. Kistyakovsky, Lesya Ukrainka. He is the author and co-author of about 30 publications.

Phone: +380664255430; E-mail: y.bezzub@kubg.edu.ua

Stepan Borchuk is Professor at the Department of World History in Vasyl Stefanyk Precarpathian National University and holds a doctorate in Historical Sciences. His area of research relates to the encyclopedic study of historical figures in Central and Eastern Europe in the 19th and 20th centuries.

Phone: +380505210343; E-mail: borchuk_s@ukr.net

Vira Burdyak is Professor of Political Sciences in the Department of Political Science and Public Administration, Faculty of History, Political Science and International Relations at Yuriy Fedkovych Chernivtsi National University in Ukraine. Her main research includes the history and theory of political science, transformation processes of post-socialist countries, European integration, the political culture of European societies, ethnopolitics, political regionalism, and some aspects of the theory and practice of public administration.

Phone: +380506787627; E-mail: vira.burdjak@gmail.com

Olga Dudar, PhD, is Associate Professor in the Department of Historical and Civic Education In-Service Teacher Training Institute Borys Grinchenko in Kyiv University, Ukraine. The area of her research is related to the history of Ukraine at the 19th – early 20th century, analysis of historiographical materials, in particular the social activities of Boris Grinchenko peculiarities, media development and cultural heritage. She is author and co-author of more than 20 scientific publications.

Phone: +380676657258; E-mail: o.dudar@kubg.edu.ua

Ayça Eminoglu is Assistant Professor at Karadeniz Technical University, International Relations Department, Trabzon, Turkey. She attended the Near East University TRNC, where she earned a BA in International Relations. She holds a Master's degree and a PhD from the Department of International Relations, Karadeniz Technical University, Trabzon, Turkey. Her main fields of specialization and research include security studies, conflict resolution and peace studies, foreign policy analysis.

Phone: +905053916131; E-mail: aeminoglu@ktu.edu.tr

Buğrahan Emir received his BA degree from Uludag University in International Relations Department (2017). He started his master's degree in 2018, at Karadeniz Technical University, Institute of Social Sciences, Department of International Relations. His study areas are international security and foreign policy. He is a Master's student at Karadeniz Technical University, Institute of Social Sciences.

Phone: +905558401268; E-mail: emirrbugra@gmail.com

Vlad Gafița is Lecturer at the Faculty of History and Geography at Ștefan cel Mare University of Suceava. He is specialized in modern and contemporary history, teaching disciplines such as Modern and Contemporary Political History, World Contemporary History, History of Right-Wing Totalitarianism during the Interwar Period, etc. In 2007 he defended his doctoral thesis on a topic associated with the history of Romanian nationalism in Bukovina: Iancu Flondor (1865-1924) and the Romanians' national movement in Bukovina. He is currently dealing with the theoretical origins of the extreme right-wing during the interwar period.

Phone: +40761815192; E-mail: vladgafita@usm.ro

Elham Hendiani received a Master's degree in Archaeology from Tabriz Islamic Art University. He is currently working on a doctoral dissertation – Investigating the spatial structure, causes of formation and pattern of distribution of European castles on the Persian Gulf and their impact on maritime trade in the region's ports (a case study related to the coasts of Hormozgan province), supervised by Dr. Vahid Asgarpour and Dr. Yadollah Heidari.

Phone: +989379761603; E-mail: el.hendiani@gmail.com

Gulmira Jambaulova is Lecturer in the Department of Kazakh and World History in Kh. Dosmukhamedov Atyrau State University. She has over 27 years of effective work experience. Her research interests focus on the history of the oralmans (i.e. Kazakh repatriates) and the political repressions of citizens of Kazakhstan, in the 1930-1950s.

Phone: +77122276327; E-mail: Gula-12345@mail.ru

Sanim Kaluova holds a Master's degree in Historical Sciences from the Department of Kazakh and World History, in Elite School-Kindergarten Complex "Senim". She has 15 years of experience in the field of education. The sphere of her scientific interests includes the history of the region and the history of the Kazakh cinema and theatre.

Phone: +87122317044; E-mail: sanimuapovna@mail.ru

Dinara Khamidullina, PhD, is Senior Lecturer in the Department of Kazakh and World History at Kh. Dosmukhamedov Atyrau State University. She has more than 10 years of professional experience. Her scientific activity is related to the history of everyday life and history of the period of repression and deportation in Kazakhstan.

Phone: +87122276327; E-mail: khamidullina.dinara@mail.ru

Ninel Klimenko, PhD, is Associate Professor in the Department of Historical and Civic Education In-Service Teacher Training Institute Borys Grinchenko at Kyiv University. Her main research interests include the history of Ukraine in the 19th – early 20th centuries, the historical figures, the state politics of historical memory, the Jewish-Ukrainian relations. She focuses on the scientific and cultural heritage of Ivan Krypiakevich, Borys Grinchenko and Maria Zagyrnia (Grinchenko). Ninel Klimenko is the author and co-author of more than 30 scientific publications.

Phone: +380969260594; E-mail: n.klymenko@kubg.edu.ua

Andrii Korolko is Associate Professor in the Department of History of Ukraine and Methods of Teaching History of Vasyl Stefanyk Precarpathian National University. His research interests are the history of Ukrainian culture, history of Ukraine, processes of ethnopolitical and ethnocultural identity in border regions. He published over 120 studies, articles, and monographs.

Phone: +380967452643, E-mail: korolko_andr@ukr.ne

Anatolii Kotsur holds a PhD in Historical Sciences. Currently, he is Professor in the Ethnology and Historical Sources Studies Department at Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv. He has had experience in education and science for more than 35 years. His areas of scientific interests include Ukrainian historiography, topical issues of Ukrainian history of the 18th – 21st centuries, Ukrainian and foreign ethnology in the national scientific discourse, history of Ukrainian statehood, Ukrainian national idea of the 19th – the beginning of the 21st century, Biography. He is the author and co-author of more than 600 scientific publications, 21 monographs, 98 methodological works, 19 textbooks and study guides.

Phone: + 380505810402; E-mail: kotsurap@meta.ua

Halyna Kotsur holds a doctorate in Historical Sciences. She is Associate Professor in the Department of Archive Science and Specialized Branches of Historical Science, Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv. She has over 35 years of experience in education and science. The main directions of her scientific work include historiography, the methodology of historiographic research, source studies, history of Ukraine in the 18th century, history of statehood of Ukraine, studies about Cossacks, history of Christianity and Christian churches. She is the author and co-author of more than 280 scientific publications, 7 monographs, 3 reference books, 52 educational and methodical works, 12 textbooks and tutorials.

Phone: + 380509112979; E-mail: panihalenka@meta.ua

Alla Kyrydon is a habilitated Professor in Historical Sciences and an Honored Master of Sciences and Engineering of Ukraine. She is the Director of the State Scientific Institution «Encyclopedic Publishing House» (Kyiv, Ukraine). Her research interests encompass issues such as Memory Studies, the methodology of historical research, state-church relations, the history of international relations, Ukrainian-Polish relations, problems of identity in the context of globalization, history of Ukraine etc. She is author and co-author of more than 500 scientific publications (in Ukrainian, English, Polish, and Russian) and the leader of the project «Great Ukrainian Encyclopedia».

Phone: +380979117868; E-mail: akyrydon@ukr.net

Harieta Mareci-Sabol is Associate Professor at the Faculty of History and Geography of the “Ștefan cel Mare” University of Suceava and researcher at the Bukovina Institute of Romanian Academy. She received her PhD from “Alexandru Ioan Cuza” University of Iași in 2002 with a thesis on Romanian historiography. Her monographs, studies and articles pertaining to Modern History were published in Romania, Poland, Italy, Turkey and Ukraine. Her research interests include Bukovina’s personalities and its cultural, social, and medical history. She has also participated in European Networks and academic projects such as “Cliohnet2”, “Cliohres”, “Cliohworld” and “Healing of Memories”. She is editor assistant for the Scientific Annals of the University “Ștefan cel Mare” Suceava - “Codrul Cosminului”, member of the editorial board for “Analele Bucovinei” “Glasul Bucovinei” (Chernivtsi – Bucharest) and “Les Cahiers de Framespa” (Toulouse University, France), and of the reviewers’ board of “Haemus Journal”, Macedonia.

Phone: +40740764695; E-mail: harieta@atlas.usv.ro

Shakhman Nagimov is a Candidate of Pedagogical Sciences of the Department of Kazakh and World History at Kh. Dosmukhamedov Atyrau State University. He has more than 45 years of experience as a researcher. He is interested in the Kazakh history, the Kazakh elites, and the political repressions in Kazakhstan.

Phone: +77122276327; E-mail: Maxman45@mail.ru

Nataliya Nechayeva-Yuriychuk is Assistant Professor in the Department of Political Science and Public Administration (Yuriy Fed'kovych Chernivtsi National University, Chernivtsi, Ukraine). She holds a PhD in World History. She is interested in interdisciplinary investigations (political science, history, psychology). Her PhD thesis was dedicated to the influence of World War I on the social-psychological condition in Western Europe. She participated in a number of international seminars and conferences in Austria, Belgium, Croatia, Germany, Moldova, Romania, Slovakia and Turkey. She is interested in the social-political history of Europe, ethnic and national relations, conflicts, spiritual and information peculiarities of social and political life in the contemporary world.

Phone: +380501441633; Email: n.nechayeva-yuriychuk@chnu.edu.ua

Bulat Nigmatov is a Candidate of Historical Sciences, Associate Professor and Head of the Department "History of Kazakhstan and Social and Humanitarian Disciplines" at Safi Utebaev Atyrau University of Oil and Gas. He also works in the Ministry of Education and Science of the Republic of Kazakhstan. He has more than 27 years of experience as a researcher. His scientific interests include the history of the region and the history of the fishing industry of Kazakhstan.

Phone: +87122360135; E-mail: nigmet.bs@mail.ru

Samad Parvin received his Master's degree in Archaeology at the University of Mohagheh Ardabili. His main research interests are related to the historical archaeology and Islamic archaeology in Iran. His doctoral thesis entitled Investigating the archaeology of Islamic tombstones in Meshkinshahr's city. A Case Study: Onar's Cemetery was coordinated by Dr. Behrouz Afkhami and defended in 2017.

Phone: +989160312115; E-mail: arjaan1370@ gmail.com

Ștefan Purici graduated from Chernivtsi University, Ukraine, in 1989, his specialization being World History. He obtained his PhD in 1995, with a thesis on the Romanian national movement in Bukovina. He is currently Professor habil. in the Department of Human, Social and Political Sciences, Faculty of History and Geography, „Ștefan cel Mare” University of Suceava, and Vice-Rector for International Relations. He is also a researcher and staff member at the Bucovina Institute of Romanian Academy. His scientific interests include the history of Bukovina, International Relations, European and Euro-Atlantic Integration. He is a contributor to various international collections of articles and author of several books, studies, and articles published in Romania, Poland, Italy, Germany, and Ukraine. He conducted national and international projects and was involved in European Academic Networks such as “Cliohnet”, “Cliohnet2”, “Cliohres”. He is editor-in-chief at “Codrul Cosminului” (Suceava) and “Current Issues of Humanities and History of Medicine” (Chernivtsi), and member of the editorial board at “Analele Bucovinei”, “Glasul Bucovinei”, “Journal of European Studies and International Relations”, and “Haemus Journal”.

Phone: +4070869075; E-mail: stefanp@atlas.usv.ro

Alexander Reient completed his PhD in Historical Sciences. He is Professor, Corresponding Member of the National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine, and Deputy Director for Research at the Institute of History of Ukraine of the National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine. His research interests cover the history of national movements in Central and Eastern Europe in the 19th and 20th centuries. He published over 800 scientific materials, collective monographs, and 15 textbooks.

Phone:+380989797860; E-mail: Reent.O.P.@nas.gov.ua

Anastasia Repetska is a PhD student in the Department of History at „Ștefan cel Mare” University of Suceava and the Department of Political Science and Public Administration, Faculty of History, Political Science and International Relations at Yuriy Fedkovych Chernivtsi National University. Her research area includes the interaction of power relations in Ukraine after the “Revolution of Dignity”.

Phone: +380667851653; E-mail: nastasia_queen94@ukr.net

Aldar Sarsenov is Associate Professor in the Department of Kazakh and World History at Kh. Dosmukhamedov Atyrau State University. Having more than 43 years of professional experience, he is interested in the agrarian history of Kazakhstan, the intellectual potential of auls (traditional Kazakh mountain villages) and villages, and the history of education.

Phone: +871222276327; E-mail: aldars@mail.kz

Saeid Sattarnejad is a PhD student in Islamic Archaeology at the University of Mohaghegh Ardabili, Iran. His research includes the Islamic archaeology in Iran as well as the Islamic architecture. He is currently working on a doctoral dissertation entitled Study of the works of the Islamic period of Maragheh and supervised by Dr. Karim Hajizadeh.

Phone: +989148289512; E-mail: saeidsattarnejad@yahoo.com

Irina Shabaeva is Assistant Teacher of Russian Language in the Department №. 3, Faculty of Russian Language and General Educational Disciplines, RUDN University in Moscow. Her interests are related to the problems of distance learning of Russian as a foreign language (pre-university education).

Phone: +79031674789; E-mail: irenushka55@gmail.com

Ludmila Tretyakova is a Candidate of Philological Sciences, Associate Professor of the Faculty of Russian language and General education at the Peoples Friendship University of Russia (RUDN) in Moscow. Her activity is related to research in the field of formation and development of the scientific style of speech, methods of teaching Russian as a foreign language, gender issues in linguoculturology. She published 70 materials, including 15 educational papers and 55 scientific works, used in the teaching practice.

Phone: +79104831112; E-mail: ludmilatretyakova1@gmail.com

Serhiy Troyan is a habilitated Professor in Historical Sciences. He is Professor in the Department of International Relations, Information and Regional Studies at National Aviation University (Kyiv, Ukraine) and Professor of the University of Rzeszów (Poland). His research interests cover world history, international relations, history of diplomacy, research methodology, the foreign and domestic policy of Central and Eastern Europe (including modern Ukrainian-Polish relations). He published more than 500 scientific works in Ukrainian, English, Polish, and Russian, which are devoted to various aspects of the history of international relations. He led the multi-volume project The Great War 1914–1918: A Retrospective Analysis.

Phone: +380501475273; E-mail: kattis@ukr.net

Murat Ülgül is Associate Professor in the Department of International Relations at Karadeniz Technical University. He earned his PhD in Political Sciences and International Relations from the University of Delaware and has a Master's degree from Florida State University, in Russian and East European Studies. His research focuses on ethnic conflict, Israeli politics, American foreign policy, militarism, and religion.

Phone: +905412545750; E-mail: mulgul@ktu.edu.tr

Yoyo holds a doctorate in Middle East Studies. He is a full-time lecturer and Head of Department of Arabic Language and Literature, Faculty of Islamic Studies, University Ahmad Dahlan (UAD), Yogyakarta, Indonesia. His research interests include Arabic studies and culture, Arab Thought, and Islamic Studies. He holds a BA degree from the State Islamic University of Sunan Kalijaga, Yogyakarta, Indonesia, and MA and PhD degrees from the Gadjah Mada University, Yogyakarta, Indonesia. He is Editor in Chief for the "International Journal of Islamic Studies and Humanities".

Phone: +6281578850119; E-mail: yoyo@bsa.uad.ac.id

Yuliya Yurova is a Candidate of Pedagogical Sciences, Associate Professor in the Department of Russian Language №. 3 of the Faculty of Russian Language and General Education Disciplines, RUDN University in Moscow. She defended a dissertation of the candidate of pedagogical sciences entitled Adaptive individual study. She authored and co-authored more than 50 scientific articles, methodical works, and training manuals. The main articles are devoted to the following issues: a) lingual – a socio-cultural adaptation of foreign students to study in Russian universities at the stage of pre-University training, as well as inter-ethnic tolerance; b) the application of multimedia technologies in the learning process of Russian as a foreign language; c) organization of individual study of foreign students in pre-University education.

Phone: +79031674789; E-mail: yurova-yuv@rudn.ru

Radosław Zenderowski is currently Professor at Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw, the Head of Chair of International Relations and European Studies and Director of Institute of Political Science and Public Administration. He is also a member of the Scientific Board for PhD Studies in Silesian University in Opava (Czech Republic), member of the Scientific Board of Polish Association of European Studies, member of Committee on Political Science, Polish Academy of Sciences. He published several books and articles on national identities in Central Eastern Europe, relations between nationalism and religion, ethnic conflicts especially in the Balkan region, ethnic policies of CEE states, public diplomacy in the cross-border regions.

Phone: +48600431170; E-mail: r.zenderowski@uksw.edu.pl