

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

Dinu Balan is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Human and Social-Political Sciences, Faculty of History and Geography, at Stefan cel Mare University of Suceava. His scientific interests include Romanian Modern History, History of Nationalism, History of Political Ideas. He is an author of several books and book chapters, as well as various studies and articles published in scholarly journals.

Phone: +40741021163; Email: dinub@atlas.usv.ro

Hubert Beczek obtained his MA degree from the Institute of Historical Sciences in Warsaw. He also holds MA in Philosophy from the University of Warsaw. Currently he is a PhD student in History at the Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw, working on a thesis Polish influence in Moldavia in the 16th century. His research interests focus on Polish-Moldovan-Ottoman relations at the turn of the 16th and 17th centuries.

Phone: +48605372125; E-mail: hubertbeczek@interia.pl

Arash Beidollahkhani is an Assistant Professor at the Department of Political Sciences in Ferdowsi University of Mashhad, Iran. He holds a PhD degree in Political Sciences from Tehran University, focusing on Iran's nation branding and national image perception in contemporary period. He also benefited from a joint supervision by Erasmus Mundus program at Deusto University in Spain (PhD in Human Rights). His research interests cover topics such as Middle East and Central Asian politics and foreign policy.

Phone: +989196502494; E-mail: beidollahkhani@ferdowsi.um.ac.ir

Halyna Bilavych is a Doctor of Pedagogical Sciences and a Professor at the Department of Pedagogy of Primary Education at Vasyl Stefanyk Precarpathian National University (Ivano-Frankivsk, Ukraine). Her scientific works are devoted to the activities of Ukrainian public societies in Western Ukraine (late XIX century – 40's of the XX century), in particular the Ukrainian Pedagogical Society “Ridna Shkola”, the society “Silskyi Hospodar”, “Prosvita”, the Union of Ukrainian Women and others. Her research interests include the history of the development of education, science, pedagogical thought, culture, and literature in Western Ukraine, including Bukovina. She authored more than 300 publications (monographs, manuals, dictionaries, and articles. She is Editor-in-Chief of the professional journal of pedagogical sciences “Mountain School of Ukrainian Carpathians.”

Phone: +380984164218; E-mail: ifosuhcvas@gmail.com

Tamara Bogachyk is a Candidate of Historical Sciences, Deputy Director of the In-Service Teacher Training Institute of Education of Chernivtsi Region for Scientific and Methodological work, Assistant Professor of History of Ukraine, Faculty of History, Political Science and International Relations at Chernivtsi National University named after Yuri Fedkovych. She is the author of various international articles on the regional history of Ukraine, textbooks and manuals on the history of Northern Bessarabia. Her research interests include the socio-economic and cultural development of Northern Bukovina and Bessarabia.

Phone: +380992288206; E-mail: tamara_bogachik@ukr.net

Stepan Borchuk is a Doctor of Historical Sciences and Professor at the Department of World History at Vasyl Stefanyk Precarpathian National University. His research interests include the encyclopedics, and study of historical figures in Central and Eastern Europe in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries.

Phone: +380505210343, E-mail: borchuk_s@ukr.net

Liubov Dyptan is a postgraduate student of Department of Central and Eastern Europe of the National Pedagogical Dragomanov University, Ministry of Education and Science of Ukraine. Her research interests are related to the demographic consequences of the Second World War, in particular the health care of repatriated citizens in Ukraine (1944-1947). She published four scientific papers on this topic.

Phone: +380918036748; E-mail: lyba_17@ukr.net

Vlad Gafița is a Lecturer at the Faculty of History and Geography at Stefan cel Mare University of Suceava (Romania). He is specialized in modern and contemporary history, teaching disciplines such as Modern and Contemporary Political History. In 2007 he completed his doctoral thesis on a topic associated with the history of Romanian nationalism in Bukovina: Iancu Flondor (1865-1924) and the Romanians' national movement in Bukovina. He is currently dealing with the theoretical origins of the extreme right-wing totalitarianism during the interwar period. As a result of his research on this topic, he published two books: The Ideological Origins of Right-Wing Totalitarianism and Right-wing Totalitarianism – from Nationalism to Fascism.

Phone: +40761815192; E-mail: vladgafita@usm.ro

Yaser Kahrazeh is an Assistant Professor of International Relation in Faculty of Law and Political Sciences at Zahedan Islamic Azad University in Southeast of Iran. He holds a PhD in International Relations. His research interests focus on Indian Subcontinent and South Asia, especially on Afghanistan, Pakistan, and India politics and foreign policy.

Phone: +989155439310; E-mail: kahrazeh@iauzah.ac.ir

Nataliia Karpchuk, Doctor of Political Science, is a Professor and Head of International Communication and Political Analysis Department at the Lesya Ukrainka Volyn National University (Lutsk, Ukraine). Her sphere of professional interests includes information and communication policies of international actors, information warfare, and media propaganda. She teaches “Mass and Strategic Communications”, “Propaganda in the System of Strategic Communications”, “Information Warfare in Geopolitics”.

Phone: +380974943183; E-mail: karpchuknata@gmail.com

Sergii Khomych holds a PhD in Economic Science. He is an Associate Professor of the Economic Cybernetics Department at the Rivne State University of Humanities (Rivne, Ukraine). He specialises in Data Mining, Text Mining, Data Visualisation and teaches “Configuration of Information Systems”, “Intellectual Data Analysis”.

Phone: +380979857024; E-mail: sergiykhomych@gmail.com

Ihor Koliada is a Doctor of Historical Sciences and Professor at the Department of Methods of Teaching Social Sciences and Gender Education at National Pedagogical Dragomanov University. His research interests are the history of Ukrainian culture, history of Ukraine. He published over 220 studies, articles and monographs.

Phone: +380679150426 E-mail: kolyada.i.a.1968@gmail.com

Andrii Korolko is an Associate Professor at the Department of History of Ukraine and Methods of Teaching History of Vasyl Stefanyk Precarpathian National University. His research interests are the history of Ukrainian culture, history of Ukraine, processes of ethnopiitical and ethnocultural identity in border regions. He published over 120 studies, articles, and monographs.

Phone: +380967452643; E-mail: korolko_andr@ukr.net

Oleksiy Koshel holds a PhD in Historical Sciences from Yuriy Fedkovich Chernivtsi National University (Ukraine). He is also a member of the Podillya History Research Center of the Institute of History of Ukraine of the National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine at Kamyanets-Podilsky National University. His research interests cover the activities of the Orthodox clergy of the 19th - early 20th centuries. He authored 30 publications in professional journals.

Phone: +380673278065; E-mail: koshel@cvu.kiev.ua

Selim Kurt is an Associate Professor at Giresun University, Department of International Relations. He teaches „Terrorism in International Relations”, „The Conflict Points in Black Sea Region”, „Eurasianism”, and „International Political Economy”. He earned his BA degree in Political Science and International Relations from Istanbul University in 2001, and MA in International Relations at Karadeniz Technical University in 2006. In 2017, he took his PhD at Karadeniz Technical University with his dissertation entitled ‘The Formation of Black Sea’s Security Architecture and Role of Turkey’. He published a book (“The Conflicts Points in Wider Black Sea Region”), book chapters, articles in peer-reviewed journals, and presentations in different international conferences.

Phone: +905385846431 E-mail: selim.kurt@giresun.edu.tr

Vitaliy Makar holds a PhD in Political Sciences. He is an Associate Professor of the Department of International Relations at Yuriy Fedkovych Chernivtsi National University. He is Director of Ramon Hnatyshyn Canadian Studies Centre at Chernivtsi University and Fellow of the Association for Canadian Studies. His main research interest covers problems of Canadian studies, development of national minorities, issues of the Ukrainian Diaspora in the modern world, Ukrainian-Canadian bilateral relations.

Phone: +380505230200; E-mail: v.makar@chnu.edu.ua

Yuriy Makar is a Doctor of Historical Science, Professor, and Head of the Department of International Relations at Yuriy Fedkovych Chernivtsi National University. He is a member of the Ukrainian Academy of Historical Sciences, of International Slavic Academy of Sciences, and of Ukrainian Free Academy of Sciences in the United States. He was awarded the title "Honorary Professor" by Yuri Fedkovych National University of Chernivtsi (2000), Lesia Ukrainka Volyn National University (2003), University of Rzeszow (2007) and the title "Honorary Doctor" by Vasyl Stefanyk Precarpathian National University (2015). His area of scientific interests includes the history of International Relations, Canadian Studies, contemporary bilateral Ukraine-Poland, Ukraine-Romania, Ukraine-EU relations. He published more than 300 scientific works, including research papers, textbooks and monographs.

Phone: +380505279439; E-mail: y.makar@chnu.edu.ua

Mariia Oliinyk is a Doctor of Pedagogical Sciences, Professor, and Head of Pedagogy and Psychology of Preschool Education Department, Yuriy Fedkovych Chernivtsi National University, Chernivtsi, Ukraine. In 2015 she defended her doctoral dissertation on the role of the Professional Training of future preschool practitioners in Eastern European countries. She authored several monographs, manuals, dictionaries, and articles on historical issues, theory and practice of preschool teachers' training in Eastern Europe. She is a member of the editorial board of "International Journal of Social and Educational Innovation" and of the scientific journal "Educational Space of Ukraine".

Phone: +380506910934; E-mail: m.oliinyk@chnu.edu.ua

Ștefan Purici is currently the Vice-Rector for International Relations at Ștefan cel Mare University of Suceava, and a Full Professor in the Department of Human, Social and Political Sciences, Faculty of History and Geography. He is also a researcher and a staff member of the Bucovina Institute of Romanian Academy. His scientific interests include the History of Bukovina, International Relations, European and Euro-Atlantic Integration. He is a contributor to various international collections of articles and author of several books, studies and articles published in Romania, Poland, Italy, Germany, Ukraine. He conducted national and international projects and was involved in European Academic Networks. He is editor-in-chief at "Codrul Cosminului" (Suceava) and "Current Issues of Humanities and History of Medicine" (Chernivtsi), and member of the editorial board at "Analele Bucovinei", "Glasul Bucovinei", "Journal of European Studies and International Relations", and "Haemus Journal".

Phone: +40740869075; E-mail: stefanp@atlas.usv.ro

Oleksandr Potyl'chak is a Doctor of Historical Sciences, Professor, and Head of Department of Original and Special Historical Sciences of the National Pedagogical Dragomanov University, Ministry of Education and Science of Ukraine. His research interests include the History of the Soviet Secret Services, the Military and Socio-Political History of Ukraine during the Second World War, and the Postwar Period. The main research issues are related to the Nazi occupation regime on the territory of Ukraine (1941-1944), Soviet military captivity in the Ukrainian SSR in 1939-1954; repatriation of displaced persons to the territory of the Ukrainian SSR in 1944-1953. Author of more than 200 scientific publications.

Phone: +380935505067; E-mail: pot1965@ukr.net

Borys Savchuk is a Professor at the Department of Pedagogy and Pedagogical Management named after Bogdan Stuparik, Vasyl Stefanyk Precarpathian National University (Ivano-Frankivsk, Ukraine). In 1999 he defended his doctoral dissertation on the role of Ukrainian public organizations in the social life of Galicia in the last third of the XIX century – 30s of the XX century. He published more than 250 scientific works, including 15 monographs, 11 textbooks and manuals, 12 articles in journals indexed by Scopus and Web of Science. He studies social movements and ethno-national relations in the western Ukrainian lands and the countries of Eastern Europe in the XIX century – first half of the XX century, as well as military burials in the Carpathian region.

Phone: +380677306573; E-mail: boris_savchuk@ukr.net

Anatolii Shvab is a Doctor of Historical Sciences, Professor at the Ukrainian History and Archaeology Department at Lesia Ukrainka Volyn National University. His main scientific interests include emigration from Poland in 1919 - 1939, the history of interwar Poland, modern social and economic history of Ukraine.

Phone: +380955850083; E-mail: anatoliyshvab@gmail.com

Larysa Shvab is a Ph.D. in History, Associate Professor of the Department of the World History and Philosophy at Lesia Ukrainka Volyn National University. Her main scientific interests cover the modern history of Central and Eastern Europe, the political history of modern Poland, and the modern history of European culture.

Phone: +380955715572; E-mail: lesyashvab@gmail.com

Mariana Shvab is a Doctor in Political Sciences, Senior Lecturer of the Political Science, Management and State Security Department at Lesya Ukrainka Volyn National University. Her main scientific interests include democratic governance, liberal democracy and its development in Ukraine, civil society, public participation, and the role of social media in elections.

Phone: +380955850083; E-mail: shvab.mariana@gmail.com

Zoya Shwed holds a PhD in Philosophy, Professor at the Department of Religious studies at the Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv (Ukraine). She is specialized in Religious Studies, Philosophy and Law of Religion, teaching disciplines such as „Religious Studies”, „Canon Law”, „Religious Fundamentalism and Modern Politics”. She is interested in interdisciplinary research of social and religious processes. She published several scientific papers and monographs.

Phone: +380442393334; E-mail: shwedzoya@yahoo.com

Bohdan Yuskiv is a Doctor of Political Science. He works as a Professor at the Economic Cybernetics Department at the Rivne State University of Humanities (Rivne, Ukraine). His research interests include System Analysis, Data/Text Mining, information and analytical activity, information security, media culture. He teaches subjects connected with information and analytical activity, content and event analyses.

Phone: +38676466895; E-mail: yuskivb@ukr.net