

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

Antonina Anistratenko is a Doctor of Philological Science, Associate Professor of the Department of Social Sciences and Ukrainian Studies, Bukovinian State Medical University (Chernivtsi, Ukraine). Her research interests lie in the modern art process in Ukraine and Europe, literary anthropology and the cultural impact of fiction on social life. She authored 120 scientific publications, including 5 monographs, 2 textbooks.

Phone: +380660095563; E-mail: oirak@bsmu.edu.ua

Adnan Dal is a PhD in International Relations. He currently works as a research assistant in the Department of International Relations at Firat University, Turkey. In 2020, he received his doctorate from Yalova University. His doctoral dissertation explores the cooperative role of the Arctic Council as a regime formation. He focuses on Arctic politics, Arctic Council, geoeconomics, and energy exploration in the Arctic.

Phone: +905453905476; E-mail: adal@firat.edu.tr

Valerii Kapeliushnyi is a Doctor of Historical Sciences, Professor, Corresponding Member of National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine, Chair of the Department of Ethnology and Local Lore of Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv, Ukraine. His research interests centre around ethnology, the History of Ukraine, the traditional culture of the Ukrainian population, the historiography of the History of Ukraine during the Ukrainian Revolution of 1917-1921. He has authored 200 scientific publications.

Phone: +380503114679; E-mail: v.kapelyushniy@meta.ua

Andrii Kharuk is currently the Head of the Department of Humanities in Hetman Petro Sahaidachny National Army Academy, Lviv (Ukraine) and holds a doctorate in Historical Sciences. He wrote about 200 scientific papers and study guides. His area of research is related to the History of the Ukrainian Army in the 20-21 centuries and the History of aviation.

Phone: +380936350100; E-mail: andrij.kharuk@gmail.com

Volodymyr Komar is a Doctor of Historical Sciences, Professor of the Department of History of Central and Eastern Europe and Special Branches of Historical Science. His research interests cover the History of Central and Eastern Europe in the interwar period, the History of Poland, Ukrainian-Polish relations, geopolitics.

Phone: +380975288077, E-mail: wolodymyr.komar@gmail.com

Yevhen Lyzen is a Master of History, postgraduate student of the Department of World History of the Precarpathian National University named after Vasyl Stefanyk. The theme of his scientific research is "Peacekeeping mission during the Polish-Ukrainian War of 1918 – 1919". He published over 15 scientific publications.

Phone: +380992298954, E-mail: luge82@ukr.net

Antoniyy Moysey is Doctor of Historical Sciences, Prof., Chief of the Department of Social Sciences and Ukrainian Studies in Bukovinian State Medical University. His research interests focus on the History of Ukrainian culture, History of Ukraine, traditional culture of the Ukrainian population, interplay in area of the popular culture of Ukrainians and Romanians in Bukovina, processes of ethnocultural identity in border regions. He is the author of 220 scientific publications, including 7 monographs.

Phone: +380505300967; E-mail: antoniimoisei@bsmu.edu.ua

Tetyana Nykyforuk is an Associate Professor in the Department of Social Sciences and Ukrainian Studies of the Bukovinian State Medical University. Her thesis was entitled Poetics of S. Vorobkevych's poems. She has published 20 articles on the poetic creation of S. Vorobkevych and authored and co-authored several textbooks and manuals.

Phone: +380993827964; E-mail: kuryluk235@ukr.net

Marian Olaru is scientific researcher at the Bucovina Institute of the Romanian Academy. PhD in History (2000). Fields of interest: modern and contemporary history, oral history, microhistory and history of mentalities. He published various studies and articles related to the history of Bukovina, regarding the evolution of the political system in this region during the Austrian occupation, the role of personalities, cultural and political elite in advocating the identity at the end of the 19th century and beginning of the 20th century. He also showed a particular interest in studying the context (phenomena) conducted to the destruction of the multicultural and multi-ethnic Bukovina at the end of the Second World War, a process emphasized by the establishment of communist rule in Central and Eastern Europe.

Phone: +40744825467; E-mail: olmary55@gmail.com

Florin Pintescu received his master's degree in History (Nordic Viking and Medieval Culture) at the University of Oslo-Norway (1999). He was awarded his PhD in Historical Sciences (2003) and Geography (2015) by Al. I. Cuza University of Iași. He is currently Professor at Ștefan cel Mare University of Suceava, where he teaches European Medieval History, Theory of the International Relations, Geopolitics and Geostrategy. His main research interests are European and Romanian military history, history of the national minorities in Bukovina, geopolitics of Romania and the influence of policies of the USA, Germany, and Russia upon Romania after 1990.

Phone: +40747023832; E-mail: florinp@atlas.usv.ro

Andrii Shumka is the Head of the Education Scientific Language Training Center in Hetman Petro Sahaidachny National Army Academy, Lviv (Ukraine) and holds a PhD degree in Historical Sciences. He wrote 30 scientific papers and study guides. His area of research relates to the History of local wars and the military conflicts in the XX-XXI centuries.

Phone: +380677069777; E-mail: andrii_shumka@ukr.net

Ihor Soliar is a Doctor of Historical Sciences, Professor, Director of I. Krypiakevych Institute of Ukrainian Studies of the National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine. His research interests lie in the History of Western Ukraine between the two world wars, military History, contemporary state-building processes. He published over 100 studies, articles and monographs.

Phone: +380633223836, E-mail: isoliar@ukr.net

Oksana Valion holds a PhD degree in History. She is an Associate Professor in the Department of the World History and Religious Studies of V. Hnatiuk Ternopil National Pedagogical University (Ukraine). Her main field of research is the socio-economic History of the Republic of Belarus, World History and the History of International Relations. Oksana Valion is author of two books and about 100 scientific publications.

Phone: +380969887298; E-mail: o_valion@ukr.net