

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

Mariam Chkhartishvili is currently Director of the Institute of Georgian History at the Faculty of Humanities, Ivane Javakhishvili Tbilisi State University and Head of the Department of Medieval History of Georgia at the same university. Fields of scholarly interests: Political and Cultural History of Medieval Georgia; Modern history of Georgia; Georgian hagiography as historical source. Since 1999 has been involved in the research projects supported by grants of Georgian Academy of Sciences and Georgian National Foundation for Georgian Studies, Humanities and Social Sciences (Rustaveli Foundation). Representative books: Georgian Ethnic in the Epoch of Religious Conversion (2009); Coverage of the Process of the Georgian National Consolidation in Print Media. Georgians as Readers of Iveria (2011, co-author K. Mania).

Mobile phone: +995599714015; E-mail: mary.chkhartishvili@gmail.com

Sergiu Cornea, Associate Professor in Public Administration, is currently Vice-Rector on Scientific Activity & International Relations at Cahul State University “B. P. Hasdeu”. He is member of the Association of Historians of the Republic of Moldova and published dozen of scientific, methodical and didactic studies in the History and Public Administration domains. His main fields of research are related to the Administrative Organization of Bessarabia under the Russian Empire Occupation, the History of Public Administration, and Territorial Organization of Public Power.

Phone: +37329925485; E-mail: s_cornea@yahoo.com

Raluca Dima holds a Master Degree in the Management of International Relations and European Policies, at the “Babes-Bolyai” University of Cluj-Napoca, Faculty of History and Philosophy, obtained in 2010. She prepares a PhD Thesis: “The Romanian Orthodox Church as a transnational actor. The relations between the Romanian Orthodox Church and the Romanian Orthodox communities in Western Europe after 1990”. Her fields of interest include: religion and politics, sociology of religion and transnational studies.

Mobile phone: +40743938876; E-mail: ralue_dima@yahoo.fr

Larisa Dodkhudoeva is currently Head of Ethnographic Department in the Institute of History, Archaeology, Ethnography at the Academy of Sciences of the Republic of Tajikistan. Her researches are focused basically on Gender studies and history of women in Tajikistan.

Mobile phone: +992372257776; E-mail: sofikomalik@gmail.com

Alina Felea has a Ph.D from Institute of History of Academy of Science of Moldova in 2001. She is a scientific researcher at Institute of History, State and Law of Academy of Science of Moldova. Her research interests include some topics as „Mentalities and everyday life in the medieval and modern times”, “History of medieval towns in Eastern Europe”, “Testamentary legacy in Eastern Europe and South East”.

Mobile phone: +37379629964, E-mail: afelea44@yahoo.com

Radu Gabriel Ichim is currently a Ph.D. student at Faculty of History and Geography, Ștefan cel Mare University of Suceava, Romania. He is finishing his Ph.D thesis on work and life of the Primate Metropolitan of Romania, Calinic Miclescu (1822-1886). Field of interest: history of the Romanian Orthodox Church in 18th-19th centuries.

Phone: +40742973355; E-mail: ichim_radu_gabriel@yahoo.com

Vazha I. Kiknadze is currently Director of the Iv. Javakhishvili Institute of History and Ethnology at Tbilisi State University. He is the author of over 100 scientific papers and 5 monographs. The last one has been published in New York, by E. Mellen Press, in 2013. His works are notable for innovation, covering a wide chronological spectrum from the middle centuries until the beginning of XXth century. Phone: +99532527187 E-mail: vazhakiknadze@yahoo.com Marinel Ovidiu Koch – Tufiş is currently a Ph.D. student at the Faculty of History, University „Karl Franzens” in Graz, Austria. His dissertation focuses on the aspects of absolutist policy of the Habsburgs in Transylvania, Banat and Oltenia, in the 18th century. He is author of several articles and studies about mining, metallurgy and population of Banat and Transylvania.

Phone: + 06765744067, E-mail: marinelovidiu.kochtufis@edu.uni-graz.at Harieta Mareci-Sabol is Lecturer at the Faculty of History and Geography of the “Ștefan cel Mare” University of Suceava. She received her Ph.D. from “Alexandru Ioan Cuza” University of Iași in 2002 with a thesis on Romanian historiography. In this field of study, she has published one monograph and several articles. Her research interest focuses on Bukovina’s cultural history and its personalities.

Phone: +4740764695, E-mail: harieta@atlas.usv.ro

Ștefan Purici graduated from Chernivtsy University, Ukraine, in 1989, his specialization being World History. He obtained his PhD in 1995, with a thesis on the Romanian national movement in Bukovina (1775-1861). He is currently Professor in the Department of Human, Social and Political Sciences, Faculty of History and Geography, Ștefan cel Mare University of Suceava, where he is also Vice-Rector for International Relations. His research interests include the history of Bukovina, International Relations, European and Euro-Atlantic Integration. He is contributor to various international collections of articles and is the author of a several books, studies and articles.

Phone: +4070869075; E-mail: stefanp@atlas.usv.ro

Natalia Pushkareva is Professor, Leading Research Fellow and Head of Women's and Gender Studies Department at the Institute of Ethnology and Anthropology Russian Academy of Sciences, Chief Editor of the Yearbook „Sotsialnaya istoriya” (Social History). She is also the President of “Russian Association for Research in Women's History” (from 2002) and Member of the Board of the “International Federation for Research in Women's History”. She published a dozen of monographs and collections of essays, among them – Women in Medieval Rus (Moscow, Mysl: 1989), Women in Russia and in Europe at the Dawn of the Modern Age (Moscow, IEA: 1996), Women in Russian History from the 10th to the 20th c. (New York, M.E. Sharp, 1997), Gender Theory and Historical Sciences (St.-Petersburg, 2007). She is also one of the contributors of the volume Shame, Blame, and Culpability. Crime and violence in the modern state, edited by J. Rowbotham, M. Muravyeva, D. Nash (Routledge: SOLON, 2012).

Phone: +79163249389; E-mail: pushkarev@mail.ru

Lorina P. Repina is Associate Member of the Russian Academy of Sciences, Vice-Director of the Institute of World History of the RAS, and the President of the Russian Society for Intellectual History. Research interests: Theory of History, Methods of Historical Research, Intellectual History, Gender History, Urban History.

Mobile phone: +79037453782; E-mail: lorinarepina@yandex.ru

Oleh Shylyuk is currently Deputy Director of the Scientific Library of the Yuriy Fed'kovych Chernivtsi National University. His research is devoted to the topic The development of libraries in the western regions of the Ukrainian SSR (1939-1991 years). He is author of several articles and studies about history of libraries in Western Ukraine, the characteristics of their activities.

Phone: +38 0372584771; E-mail: o.shylyuk@chnu.edu.ua

Dan-Dragos Sichigea graduated from “Ovidius” University of Constanța in 2009. He holds a Master degree in International Relations in the XX-XXI centuries at the same university. His research interests are focused on international relations during the Second World War and the Cold War era and Romanian participation in the former Warsaw Pact.

Phone: +40742272286; E-mail: dragos_sichigea@yahoo.com

Dovile Troskovaite is currently a junior researcher at University of Klaipeda, Department of History and Archeology. She is finishing her Ph.D. thesis on the formation of self-identity of Polish Karaites in the first half of the 20th century. She is also a junior researcher at Vilnius University, Faculty of History, working in an international team of researchers, who investigate the demographical and social structure of Jews and Karaites in the Grand Duchy of Lithuania in the 18th century.

Phone: +37068411853; E-mail: dovile.troskovaite@gmail.com

Katarzyna Wagner is a Ph.D. student at the Institute of History, University of Warsaw, Poland and works in the Historical Museum of Warsaw. Her dissertation focuses on inequality in Polish cities in the 17th and 18th century (during the “Deluge” and the Great Northern War). Her fields of interest include political and economic history, Polish-Swedish relations in 17-18th century, and the history of cities in 17-18th century.

Phone: +48604051914, E-mail: wagner.katarzyna@gmail.com