

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

Vasile Baltag is a Ph. D. candidate at the “Stefan cel Mare University” of Suceava, Faculty of History and Geography. His main scientific interest is based on the issue of education in Bucovina between 1775-1918, with emphasis on the theological branch of education. The thesis “Theological PhD School in the University of Cernăuți (1877-1918)”, together with research work resulting in published studies (i.e. Education in Bucovina, The Foundation of the University of Cernăuți, The Religion Class in the Austrian Bucovina etc) have the aim of highlighting the meanings of theological education in Bukovina during the time of Austrian Empire. Promoting and preserving the national faith unity of the Romanian people, as well as building orthodox elite are the main purposes of the theological Romanian school in Bukovina in this period.

Phone: +40744787629 ; E-mail: vbaltag88@yahoo.com

Radu Florian Bruja graduated from “Ștefan cel Mare” University of Suceava (Romania) in 2001. He took his M.A. degree in History at the “Alexandru Ioan Cuza” University of Iași, and was awarded his Ph. D. in 2006. He has published several articles and books on various aspects of political life during the '30 and '40s of the 20th century in Romania and abroad. He has now Lecturer at the “Ștefan cel Mare” University of Suceava, and his field of research is represented by Romanian interwar radical political movements and Polish-Romanian and Slovakian-Romanian relations (in the interwar period).

Reference works: King Charles the Second and the unique party: National Renaissance Front, (Iași, 2006), Traian Brăileanu, Studies, Documents and Literature (Iași, 2011) and The Extreme Right in Bucovina (Târgoviște, 2012). Moreover, he published more articles like Traian Brăileanu – life marks of a legionary ideologist in „Valahian Journal of Historical Studies”, no.11, Târgoviște, 2009; Paradigm of Totalitarianism in Romania: the Case of Education under the National Legionary Government (September 1940 – January 1941) in „Acta Historica Neosoliensia” 13/2010, Banska Bystrica; Romania’s German Minority in National Renaissance Front in „Acta Historica Neosoliensia” 14/2011; The Organization of the „All for the Fatherland” Party in Bukovina, în „Culture, Elites and European Integration”, vol. III History, coord. Cornel Sigmirean, Paris, Editions Prodifmultimedia, 2011, The Reorganization of Iron Guard, between Outlawry to Re-establishment (1933-1935) in „Bukovinian Journal of History and Cultural Anthropology”, Chernivtsi National University, 2012, Establishment of Romanian-Slovakian Diplomatic Relations in 1939 în „Globalization and Intercultural Dialogue. Multidisciplinary Perspectives. Section History”, Arhipelag XXI, 2014 and so on.

Phone +40744503551; E-mail: radu_bruja@yahoo.com

Zbigniew Chmiel is a Ph.D. student at the Institute of History, University of Warsaw, Poland. His dissertation focuses on changes in Polish army from 1648 to 1654. His fields of interest include political and military history of 17th century Poland.

Phone +48225337516; E-mail: zbigniew.chmiel@gmail.com

Roumen Genov graduated from the Faculty of History of Sofia University St. Kliment Ohridski, where he obtained his Ph.D. degree, and had taught General (World) Modern and Contemporary History. He is now Professor of Modern History at the New Bulgarian History, Sofia. His publications include: Gladstone: A Biography (Sofia, 1996), Politics of Righteous Passion: William Gladstone and the Bulgarians (Sofia, 1999, 2009), The Eastern Question the April Uprising and the English Philanthropy (Sofia, 2007), The American Revolution: The War of Independence and the Creation of the Federal Republic (2012).

Phone: +35929885906; E-mail: genov@nbu.bg; rlgenov@yahoo.com

Vitalii Haiseniuk is a Ph.D. student of Yuriy Fedkovych Chernivtsi National University, Faculty of History, Political Science and International Relations. His main research fields are related to History of the West Ukrainian region in the second half of the 19th century - the beginning of the 20th century, especially issues concerning topics such as Russophilism and the relations between the Ukrainians and Poles in Galicia.

Phone: +380992554958; E-mail: vit.hajs@gmail.com

Marinel Ovidiu Koch – Tufiş is currently a Ph.D. student at the Faculty of History, University „Karl Franzens” in Graz, Austria. His dissertation focuses on the aspects of absolutist policy of the Habsburgs in Transylvania, Banat and Oltenia, in the 18th century. He is author of several articles and studies about mining, metallurgy and population of Banat and Transylvania.

Phone: + 06765744067; E-mail: marinelovidiu.kochtufis@edu.uni-graz.at Harieta Mareci-Sabol is Lecturer at the Faculty of History and Geography of the “Ștefan cel Mare” University of Suceava. She received her Ph.D. from “Alexandru Ioan Cuza” University of Iași in 2002 with a thesis on Romanian historiography. In this field of study, she has published one monograph and several articles. Her research interest focuses on Bukovina’s cultural history and its personalities.

Phone: +4740764695; E-mail: harieta@atlas.usv.ro

Sergey Nazaria is currently Associate Professor at The Moldavian State Institute of Foreign Relations from Kishinev (the Republic of Moldavia). He got a Ph.D. thesis in History (Fight against criminality in the time of Administrative-command system during 1976-1986. Case Study: Republic of Moldavia). He also wrote a habilitation thesis (Ph.D. Hab.) in political sciences (Russian Federation in the context of the contemporary international political processes). Fields of research: history of Bessarabia in the interwar period, contemporary history of the Republic of Moldavia, Holocaust in Bessarabia during the 2nd World War.

Phone: +37368307085; E-mail: sergnazar@mail.ru

Katarzyna Niemczyk, graduated from University of Silesia in Katowice (Poland) in 2008. She got her Ph.D degree at the same university in 2012, based on a thesis about the family of counts of Kamieniec in 15th and 16th centuries. She is now a postdoctoral fellow at the University of Silesia and is working on a project focusing on a role of Moldavia, Walachia and Transylvania in Jagiellonian policy and mutual elite connections between Poland and these regions.

Phone: +48665989861; E-mail: katarzyna.niemczyk@us.edu.pl

Ihor Pidubnyi is an Assistant Professor of the Department of Modern and Contemporary History in Chernivtsi National University. Educated in the Chernivtsi University, Faculty of History. PhD in History has received for his thesis “The socio-political and cultural life of Ukrainians of Bukovina during the interwar period.” Research interests focus on the political history of Romania in the interwar period, in particular the political system of Romania in 1918-1940.

Phone: +380504340793; E-mail: zymnyy@ukr.net, slosser@i.ua

Florin Pintescu is currently Associate Professor at “Ștefan cel Mare” University of Suceava, Romania where he teaches European Mediaeval History, Theory of the International Relations, Geopolitics and Geostrategy. He was awarded his Ph.D. at “Alexandru Ioan Cuza” University of Iași, Romania (2003). His main research interests are European mediaeval military history, geopolitics and geostrategy.

Phone: + 40747023832; E-mail: florinp@atlas.usv.ro