

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

Musa Yavuz Alptekin (ORCID iD: 0000-0002-6221-7913) received his PhD degree from Sociology Department, Istanbul University, in 2006, and has been teaching Urban Sociology, Economical Sociology, Ethnic Sociology, Political Sociology in Department of Sociology, Karadeniz Technical University/Trabzon, (Turkey). He is also an Associate Professor in the Department of Sociology at Tashkent Journalism and Mass Communication University (Uzbekistan).

E-mail: m.yavuzalptekin@ktu.edu.tr

Oleh Ananin (ORCID iD: 0000-0001-8757-1663) holds a PhD in Technical Sciences. He is Senior Research Officer for the Main Development Program Monitoring Center (Office of Reforms) at the State Border Service of Ukraine. His research interests include the history of the border services of Ukraine and European countries.

E-mail: ananin@i.ua

Yunus Emre Aydın (ORCID iD: 0000-0001-6719-5760) defended in 2016 his master's thesis titled "Commercial Activities of the Ottoman Empire in Eastern Black Sea Ports in the 19th Century" at Bursa Uludağ University. In 2023, he received his PhD degree from M.V. Lomonosov Moscow State University, completing his research on "The Construction of the Railway in Crimea from the Second Half of the 19th Century to the Early 20th Century". Currently, he continues his career in the Department of International Relations at Karadeniz Technical University, Turkey.

E-mail: yunusemreaydin@ktu.edu.tr

Ulaş Kutsi Çezik (ORCID iD: 0000-0001-8987-7113) completed his master education in the Department of Political Science and Public Administration, at Pamukkale University (Turkey), defending a thesis on "Transformation of Public Spaces into Shopping Malls: From Denizli Sümerbank to Sümerpark." He was awarded the Overseas Education Scholarship by the Turkish Ministry of Education and conducted his doctoral thesis (entitled "Challenges and Issues of Indian Space Program – A Futuristic Perspective") at Noida International University in India, within the framework of "Country-Region" studies, in the Department of Political Science and Public Administration. Additionally, he attended the Intensive English Program at Rice University in Houston (USA) and the Hindi Language Proficiency at the Central Institute of Hindi in New Delhi (India). He works as a Lecturer in the Department of International Relations at the Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences at Karadeniz Technical University (Turkey). His main interest is related to the National Space Programs, Country-Region Studies, and Eurasian Policies. He also serves as the Internationalization Coordinator at the same university.

E-mail: ulaskutsicezik@ktu.edu.tr

Onoriu Colăcel (ORCID iD: 0000-0002-6458-3212) is Professor in English in the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, Faculty of Letters and Communication Sciences, Ștefan cel Mare University of Suceava. He earned his PhD in Philology from Alexandru Ioan Cuza University of Iași with a thesis about "Mediating and Capitalizing on Cultural Competence" (2006). His main research interests are concerned with postcolonial studies, cultural memory and patterns of self-identification in literature, media and popular culture.

E-mail: onoriucolacel@litere.usv.ro

Serhii Fedoniuk (ORCID iD: 0000-0003-2853-8905) is a Candidate of Geographical Science and Associate Professor of the International Communications and Political Analysis Department, International Relations Faculty at the Lesya Ukrainka Volyn National University (Lutsk, Ukraine). His research interests focus on communication in the system of international relations, mass collaboration, cybersecurity. He teaches subjects connected with information (cyber-) security, information and psychological operations.

E-mail: sergii.fedoniuk@vnu.edu.ua

Vlad Gafița (ORCID iD: 0000-0002-3472-5419) is a Lecturer at the Faculty of History and Geography at Ștefan cel Mare University of Suceava (Romania). He is specialized in modern and contemporary history, teaching disciplines such as Modern and Contemporary Political History. In 2007 he completed his doctoral thesis on a topic associated with the history of Romanian nationalism in Bukovina: Iancu Flondor (1865-1924) and the Romanians' national movement in Bukovina. He is currently dealing with the theoretical origins of the extreme right-wing totalitarianism during the interwar period. As a result of his research on this topic, he published two books: “The Ideological Origins of Right-Wing Totalitarianism and Right-wing Totalitarianism – from Nationalism to Fascism”.

E-mail: vladgafita@usm.ro

Mykola Kabachynskyi (ORCID iD: 0000-0001-6592-6507) holds a PhD in History. He is a Professor at National Academy of the State Border Guard Service of Ukraine, the Department of Psychology. His research interests include the history of the border services of Ukraine and European countries.

E-mail: illichk999@gmail.com

Nazarii Khrystan (ORCID iD: 0000-0003-3601-2153) earned a doctoral degree in historical science. At present, he works as an Assistant Professor at Yuriy Fedkovych Chernivtsi National University, Department of History of Ukraine. His scientific interests include space of history and memory; the influence of cultural memory in its collective and individual forms of identity; politics of memory and nation-building in Ukraine; the experience of “overcoming the past” and the conflict of memories; ideologies and practices of historical imagination in the XIX-XX centuries; visualization of memory as a way of broadcasting the past; the uses of the Middle Ages in Ukrainian historical thought.

E-mail: n.khrystan@chnu.edu.ua

Nataliia Karpchuk (ORCID iD: 0000-0002-9998-9538), Doctor of Political Science, is a Professor and Head of the International Communication and Political Analysis Department at the Lesya Ukrainka Volyn National University (Lutsk, Ukraine). Her professional interests are related to the information and communication policies of international actors, information warfare, and media propaganda. She teaches “Mass and Strategic Communications”, “Propaganda in the System of Strategic Communications”, and “Information Warfare in Geopolitics”.

E-mail: karpchuknata@gmail.com

Natalia Konopka (ORCID iD: 0000-0002-1245-3459) PhD in History, is a member of the Department of International Relations at the National University of Ostroh Academy (Ukraine). She is also affiliated to the “Ukrainian Historical Association” and “Ukrainian Foreign Policy Association”. She has particular in international politics, peace and conflict studies, diplomacy, international development, and Middle East studies.

E-mail: karpchuknata@gmail.com

Harieta Mareci Sabol (ORCID iD: 0000-0002-6712-6893) is an Associate Professor at the Faculty of History and Geography, Ștefan cel Mare University of Suceava and a researcher at Bucovina Institute of Romanian Academy. She received her PhD from Alexandru Ioan Cuza University of Iași (2002) with a thesis on Romanian historiography. Her monographs, studies and articles pertaining to Modern History were published in Romania, Poland, Italy, Turkey, Ukraine and Switzerland. Her research interests include Bukovina's personalities and its cultural, social, and medical history.

E-mail: harieta@atlas.usv.ro

Cătălina Mititelu (ORCID iD: 0000-0001-6489-9252) is Associate Professor at Ovidius University of Constanța (Romania). She graduated and obtained Bachelor's and Master's degrees from the Faculty of History, Faculty of Law, and the Faculty of Theology in Ovidius University of Constanta. Since 2012 she holds a PhD in Theology, specialization Canon Law, at the Ovidius University of Constanța (Romania). She published several studies, chapters, and books on history of law, canon law, nomocanonical law, matrimonial law, constitutional law, criminal law etc.

E-mail: ovidiustomis@yahoo.co.uk

Ștefan Purici (ORCID iD: 0000-0003-1217-4027) is currently the Vice-Rector for International Relations at Ștefan cel Mare University of Suceava, and a Professor in the Department of Human, Social and Political Sciences, Faculty of History and Geography. He is also a researcher and a staff member of the Bucovina Institute of Romanian Academy. His scientific interests include the History of Bukovina, International Relations, European and Euro-Atlantic Integration. He is a contributor to various international collections of articles and author of several books, studies and articles published in Romania, Poland, Italy, Germany, Ukraine. He conducted national and international projects and was involved in European Academic Networks. He is editor-in-chief at "Codrul Cosminului" (Suceava) and "Current Issues of Humanities and History of Medicine" (Chernivtsi), and member of the editorial board at "Analele Bucovinei", "Glasul Bucovinei", "Journal of European Studies and International Relations", and "Haemus Journal".

E-mail: stefanp@atlas.usv.ro

Taras Strykhotskyi (ORCID iD: 0000-0001-6978-8076) earned his Master degree in International Relations from National University of Ostroh

Academy. He is currently pursuing a PhD in International Relations at the Educational and Scientific Institute of International Relations and National Security, National University Ostroh Academy (Ukraine).

E-mail: taras.strykhotskyi@oa.edu.ua

Arthur Viorel Tulus (ORCID iD: 0000-0002-4368-7231) Professor at the Faculty of History, Philosophy and Theology, Dunărea de Jos University of Galați (Romania). He specialises in modern and contemporary history and in international relations and earned his PhD in History, in 2008, with a thesis on “The Maritime Danube between the Sinaia Settlement and the Belgrade Agreement (1938-1948)”. During the academic year 2011-2012, he was awarded Postdoctoral Research Fellow of the Romanian Academy, for a research project entitled “Zionism and communism among the Jewish communities around the Danube mouths. Contemporary perceptions, historiographic myths and historical realities”. He is member of several research projects and author of monographs, book chapters and scientific articles about contemporary history and international relations.

E-mail: arthur.tulus@ugal.ro